There soon will be no boughs at all."

The question of the hour—"Who will get there next Saturday?"

C. S. Young & Co., have the largest line of underwear in the State. Prices from 50 cents to $5.00. Call and examine stock before buying.

The funeral of the political dead will take place some time after next Saturday, but it is impossible at this writing to tell whose funeral it will be.

Twenty years ago a man out in Nevada invested his capital of $500 in a Durham cow. Since then he has sold $40,000 worth of high-bred stock, and is now one of the "cattle kings" of that State.

Dance.

Hunt's Reed and Brass Band will give a dance at the new Amazon Hall next Friday and Saturday evenings. Good order and good music. Refreshments at the hall.

The tank for the new gas works has been completed, and covered with freestone. It is pronounced an excellent piece of work by competent judges. The works will be completed as early as possible.

The steamer Sonoma will leave for Vanceburg next Wednesday at 12 o'clock. After that date she will leave at her regular hour. She will take the Uncle Tom's Cabin Troupe to Vanceburg Wednesday.

WILLIAM PALMER, sixty years of age, and a prominent merchant of Bedford, Ind., has eloped with a dissolute woman of that place. Palmer had a wife and six children, and was in good financial condition.

MR. ISAAC REESE, of Fern Leaf Precinct, announces himself to-day as a candidate for County Surveyor, subject to the Primary election next Saturday. He is an industrious farmer and a good citizen of that locality.

A RATHER novel method is practiced by a farmer down South to relieve choked cattle. He dashes cold water into their ears. This causes the animal to shake its head violently and the necessary muscular action dislodges the obstruction.

It is not safe to follow out every piece of advice given these days. An editor of an agricultural newspaper not long ago told that a little coal oil poured into the wound made by peach-borers would kill the insects. He tried it, and succeeded in killing the tree as well as the borer.

The trial of Robert Farrell for the murder of Thomas Calvert is in progress in the Nicholas Circuit Court this week. It was begun Monday. It is reported that a jury was secured that day, and that the examination of witnesses will be begun this morning. As there are a number of witnesses the trial will probably consume the greater part of this week.

Notice.

A meeting of the Directors of the Young Men's Kentucky Fair Company will be held at the Secretary's office, at 10 o'clock next Thursday afternoon. All are requested to be present.

Virtue in the Family.

There are all sorts and degrees of virtue, and sometimes we are told that virtue is its own reward. Mr. A. E. Evans, of Burr's Ferry, La., says, in writing about Brown's Iron Bitts: "I have been the recipient of its virtue in my family to a considerable extent." This great iron tonic has superior advantages as a reliable family medicine. Its power has been thoroughly tried, and its virtues abundantly proved. Nearly a million bottles a year are sold by the druggists of this country.

A RATHER amusing thing happened at one of the most fashionable churches at Louisville last Sunday. The Lord's Supper was being celebrated. As the wine was passed from one member to another, each cup was followed by a puckering of the mouth, and a terrible grimace. Some relieved themselves by coughing and others in different ways. After services were over the discovery was made that vinegar had been passed to the members instead of wine. The mistake was caused by one of the good deacons keeping a wine jug and vinegar jug very similar in appearance. The deacon had forgotten to sample the contents beforehand.

PROFESSOR C. C. BLAKE, the weather prophet, of Richland, Kan., in his predictions for October and November says:

"People who intend putting in winter wheat should now get it in as soon as possible, so that it may get well rooted before the ground freezes, as there will be cold weather in November next which will freeze the ground, though not very deep, in most of the Northern States; and wheat that is put in so late that it does not get well rooted before the ground freezes, stands a poor chance to live through the winter. This year the cold in November will be earlier and more severe than usual, but as most of October will be quite a favorable month for all work, most people, by diligence, can be well prepared for winter before the early cold weather will seriously interfere. The frosts in November will extend nearly to the Gulf of Mexico."

The employment of natural gas as a fuel by manufacturing concerns may, remarks the American Railway Review, mean more to our industrial interests than has been generally anticipated. "Great sums of money have been invested in changed plans by many heavy houses who figure upon material profits through the use of the fuel novel. Despite the dangers which the timid ascribe to its use, and the lack of absolute certainty as to the permanence of supply, the heavy capitalists of Pittsburgh have enough faith to warrant these large expenditures. Some of the anticipated results, in the way of savings, have already made themselves felt. For instance, it is estimated by good judges that there are already three thousand tons less of coal burned in Pittsburgh per day than there were before natural gas was used. This takes away a cool business of $2,000,000 or more a year. One concern saves $100 a day in wages formerly paid to men who wheeled out ashes. The decrease in smoke in the atmosphere is already noticeable."

In response to the invitation extended last Saturday, a large number of our citizens visited Hays' Female Seminary Monday afternoon. The new school building completed last week is an unusual one-story frame structure. Inside, however, it presents a bright appearance and is excellently arranged for a school building. The location of the seminary is a healthy and pleasant one, and as good as can be found in this city. Being away from the tumult of the city there is but very little to draw the pupils' attention away from their studies. The new building contains six rooms, all of which are nicely arranged and furnished. Its construction was begun sometime in August, and, according to the contract, was to be finished by the first of this month. It was completed and the keys handed over on the 2nd instant.

PERSONAL.

Mr. George F. Etel, left for Carlisle to-day.

Miss Maggie Moore has returned from a visit of several weeks among friends at Indianapolis.

Mr. Ed. H. Porter, Sr., who has been visiting friends and relatives near Mt. Sterling, returned home on Saturday improved in health. He will return to Montgomery County after next Saturday's primary election.

Calvin Wilson, aged sixty, fell out of a wagon near Franklin last Saturday and broke his neck. He was intoxicated.

A WISE LITTLE BOY.

A boy threw his hat on to the floor. Was told he must do so no more, and that his fond mother then used her slipper until he was sore.

The boy then looked up askance, and said, "Do you know now?" said she.

"Where your hat ought to be."

"Yes," he answered. —[Green County Events.]

MATLICK.—Corn cutting is now in full blast and crops report heavy.

In most of the tobacco is hoed and curing is steady.

We have had a few light showers of late, which will be welcome to the vegetables.

Colonel J. G. Green and his daughter, Mrs. Moody, who have been visiting here for several weeks past, left for their home in Mississippi on Saturday evening.

NATIONAL NUGGETS.

CLAIM OF THE HEIRS OF GENERAL WARD B. BURNETT.

Mormon Missionaries Sent to India Make a dismal failure—No special delivery on Sunday—Personal and Political—

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—By the August steamer for Alaska most of the civil officers received notice of their suspension, and the appointment of new incumbents, and by the last steamer sent new appointments, including Gen. Sweeny. Among the ex-senators by that steamer were Senator Jones and family, of Nevada.

The acting second controller had disclosed the names of the claimants of the late Gen. Ward B. Burnett, for whom pay for services in the Mexican war was for pay above the rank of colonel. It was argued in support of his claim for extra pay as brigadier general that he was appointed as chief of the guard by the governor of New York. The comptroller held that such a commission was not valid as against the United States. Gen. Burnett was appointed a colonel by the president, with the advice and consent of the Senate, and his pay may only be computed according to the pay of that grade.

It is reported that the number of the ships cargo of the United States steamers Swallow and Yantic to the United States treasury will be completed soon. Many of the boxes containing the bags of silver were wet during the voyage, and as a result became rotten and when handled scattered the silver dollars on the floor of the vault. This silver had to be weighed and verified. The rest of the silver will be counted after it has been received at the treasury, at the convenience of the force of clerks regularly employed to count such receipts.

Senators Breckinridge and Jones, of Arkansas, called on the president to urge him to include in his annual message a concession for liberal appropriations to improve the navigation of the Mississippi river and its tributaries. They report that the president showed marked interest in the subject, and they considered the interview very satisfactory.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The president has appointed the following named postmasters: Benj. F. Devos at Independence, Kas.; Thomas A. McLeary, Medicine Lodge, Kas.; S. S. Carries, Hesston, Kas.; Thomas R. Lovell, Wellington, Kas.; George C. Foreman, Kas.; Martin N. Sninnott, Arkansas City, Kas.; Harry S. Dean, Stockbridge, Mass.; Albert A. Haggard, Lowell, Mass.; A. H. Duley, Princeton, Ky.; J. C. Small, Bellwood, Ill.; John T. Johnson, Austin, Tex.; Peter McCanley, Grand Rapids, Wis.; Thomas Bowman, Council Bluffs, Iowa; James W. Beattie, Marshallfield, Wis.; Chas. G. Haganauer, Highland, Ill.; John H. Hough, Marion, Ind.; Wm. H. Hough, Columbus, Neb.; Henry P. Howard, San Antonio, Tex.; Lewis Lowry, Cameron, Mo.; B. F. Eilberry, Ironton, O.; J. D. Waterman, Rockford, Ill.; J. W. Brinker, West Point, N. Y.; Edward T. Bass, Dallas, Tex.; F. L. Whetstone, York, N. C.; C. G. Hadas, May, Del Norte, N. M.; and Mr. McLean, a letter carrier at Calais, was reported by the United States vice consul to the secretary of state. Minister Lowell by direction of Secretary Frerlinghuyzen officially called the attention of the British government to the object, and called for appropriate instructions to be issued to the proper authorities, with a view to checking my shipment of Mormon recruits to the United States from the Indian mission, to whom, as Lowell's communication was forwarded, stated that the harm done by the Mormons had been irreparable, and that in the opinion of the government no special measures were at present necessary, but that in case of any unusual recruitment of men or women the provision of special passes for the code would be applied. The Mormons made no converts in Calcutta. Those separated and visited the parts of India who are reported to have converted two or three hundred persons, but finally became so much radicalized in finances that they were compelled to seek help, and one or more of them left India in a state of destitution.

Mormons in India.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Reports have been received through official channels of the apparent utter failure of a recent Mormon mission sent to India. The mission consisted of Elder Wilcox and Mrs. McLean. The latter, letter carrier at Calais, was reported by the United States vice consul to the secretary of state. Minister Lowell by direction of Secretary Frerlinghuyzen officially called the attention of the British government to the object, and called for appropriate instructions to be issued to the proper authorities, with a view to checking my shipment of Mormon recruits to the United States from the Indian mission, to whom, as Lowell's communication was forwarded, stated that the harm done by the Mormons had been irreparable, and that in the opinion of the government no special measures were at present necessary, but that in case of any unusual recruitment of men or women the provision of special passes for the code would be applied. The Mormons made no converts in Calcutta. Those separated and visited the parts of India who are reported to have converted two or three hundred persons, but finally became so much radicalized in finances that they were compelled to seek help, and one or more of them left India in a state of destitution.

She Holds On.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Recently the post office general appointed a postmaster in an Illinois town, a young lady who was nineteen years old. She filed her bond and entered upon her duties, when the postoffice department was informed that according to the laws of Illinois she was too young to be responsible, as she could not be of age before twenty-one. The matter was referred to the assistant attorney general of the postoffice department, who decided she was a young person for the position and that her bondsman were legally responsible to the government, though by the law of Illinois she was still a minor.

No Special Delivery on Sunday.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The postmaster general has made the following announcement of the policy of the department in regard to the treatment of letters bearing special delivery stamps received in postoffices on Sunday:

"It is not expected by the department that postmasters shall require messengers in the postoffices to make special delivery reports on Sunday nor to keep their offices open to any different extent than is now provided by the different regulations and usage for special delivery purposes."
